1/3. Architecture in motion. Vernacular Renaissance in nineteenth-century France
Francesca Mattei (Università di Roma Tre, Italy)

Francesca Mattei is Associate professor of History of architecture at Roma Tre University, Rome. She has published widely in the areas of early modern architectural history and architectural drawings. The lecture will be dedicated to the nineteenth-century French drawings housed at the Institut national d'histoire de l'Art (INHA, Paris), to which is devoted her research project Toward an Epistemology of Vernacular Renaissance Architecture. Close and Distant Reading of Nineteenth-Century French Drawings.
